

Women and Gender in Global Perspectives Program &
College of Business Outreach and Engagement host

Poverty Simulation

March 14, 2014

What is it like to live in the U.S. on a low-income?

Participate in a poverty simulation and find out.

For 90 minutes, participants role-play the lives of low-income family members. Participants try to meet basic housing, medical, nutritional, energy, transportation, and educational needs over the course of several weeks. Outside actors role-play managing check cashing facilities, stores, pawnshops, grocers, legal enforcement and other services.

Where – Business Instructional Facility Atrium

Sessions begin at 9:00am, 11:00am, 1:00pm and 3:00pm

Free event, pre-registration required

Register at <http://illinois.edu/lb/article/4673/80687>

Please contact WGGP with any questions at wggp@illinois.edu or (217) 333-6221

This event is part of the WGGP Inequality Initiative.

Inequality Initiative co-sponsors: College of Agricultural, Consumer & Environmental Sciences; College of Business; College of Liberal Arts & Sciences; Department of Philosophy; International Programs and Studies, School of Literatures, Cultures & Linguistics; School of Social Work